Join this year's Black on White movement with the latest winter Olympians

Offering unique access to ski with and be coached by some of New Zealand's best including our latest 2010 Winter Olympians Ben Griffin and Tim Cafe.

Coaches: Fiona Stevens	Olympian, former Top 30 Slalom FIS World Ski Circuit, New Zealand Champion.
Ben Griffin	2010 Olympian at Vancouver, 2009 +2008 NZ Skier of the Year, 2009 Overall Australasian Champion and NZ SG and GS Champion, Qualified Canadian Ski Instructor and Coach.
Time Cafe	2010 Olympian at Vancouver, 2008 World Championships, 2008 Overall Australasian Champion and NZ Champion.

Time: Four days between 9am – 3pm.

Cost: $1,500. Camp cost covers the four days coaching. (Lift passes, food, accommodation, transport etc not included).

Who: Any level of recreational skier, male or female, that loves to ski and wants to advance. Skiers are divided into groups of similar ability. Numbers are limited to approximately 6 people per coach. Coaches alternate between the groups over the four days.

What: Focus is on technical freeskiing, confidence building and integrating new technique to allow you to have a lot more fun with your skiing.

- Learn to carve properly • Drills and techniques to correct and develop your skiing quickly • Dynamics
- Stance • Off-piste skills and experience • Moguls • Steeps • Crud

Off Piste: Each camp will offer a dedicated off piste content. Treble Cone will feature greater off piste skiing and will be an integral part of the camp.

RSVP: f.stevens@snowvision.org.nz. Phone Fiona Stevens: 021 969 834 or 09 520 1887.
